3. JAZZ LECTURE

In June 2007, Dr. Gene Aitken received the United States top jazz education honor by being awarded the 2007 Jazz Educator of the Year by DownBeat magazine. During a long time, he has been Director of Jazz Studies at the University of Northern Colorado, one of the most well known jazz education programs. Dr Gene Aitken worked worldwide as an educator, producer, musician. His CV is so long and various that it is a great opportunity for us to welcome him for this lecture.

Mariano E. Abello is the Director of Kathmandu Jazz Conservatory, a new center for musical studies which opened in the fall of 2007 in Lalitpur. Born in Spain, he performed with various bands in different styles including blues, flamenco, jazz and bossa nova. Mariano plays saxophone, clarinet, flute and oboe. Since 2005, he is an active member of the Nepali music scene.

Mariano E. Abello will also take part in the round-table on Nepali music on June 19.
